The Willis and Forrest Case.

The Willis and Forrest Case.

SUPERIOR COURT.

Before Chief Justice Oakley.

Francar 24—On the case of N. P. Willis against I dwin Forrest being called. Mr. Sedgwick, attorney on half of Mr. Forrest moved, on affidavit, for a postponent ent of the trial, in consequence of fir. John Van Buren, cumsel for the defendant, being absent, in St. Lawrence county (as we understood), attending a cause there in which a large amount of money was involved. Mr. Forrest to compel him to proceed to trial in the absence of the only counsed who was acquainted with his case, whilst the plaintiff, he believed, had no less than four counsel engaged.

Mr. Edward Sandford, on the part of Mr. Willis, said that the application was a matter of very great surprise to the plaintiff. The case had been set down for the 15th of Vebruary, and an application was made to postpone in the tothe 33d, to enable Mr. Van Buren to try a cause in St. Lawrence Co. The plaintiff was in readiness yesterday, and the case was reserved till this morning. There were circumstances which rendered it important to the plain till to have the matter disposed f. Mr. Willis is in a very delicate state, and is desirious of going to another climate for the benefit of his health.

Mr. Panober, in addition to what Mr. Sandford stated, would say that the plaintiff had a great many witnesses in attendance at great expense, and if it was postponed the costs should be paid.

Mr. Redgwick remarked, that it was at Mr. Sandford's suggestion the case was set down for the 15th, to give him time to go to the Scuth. Mr. Van Baren is the only counsel for the defendant in the case, he is thoroughly acquainted with all its details, and it would be impossible for him (Mr. Sedgwick) to instruct other counsel in the defendent if the cause is forced on.

The Chief Justice said he knew all about the case. The George of the counter of the defendant if the cause is forced on.

The Chief Justice said he knew all about the case. The Chief Justice had one example of the folly of allowing the in

BHIF FEVER —Dr. Francis F. Coiton died at the City Heepital on Monday, at 2 o'clock, A. M., another victim of the ship fever, from among the members of the faculty.
He was a graduate of Amherst College; studied medicine in this city; was one year a resident physician of the hospital afterwards went to Europe, and last year opened his office for practice in Springfield, Mass. Two of the hospital physicians being sick this winter, he was sent for on account of his known character for usefulness in the hospital; and after serving there about two months, he was taken sick of the ship fever last Thursday night, and lived but three days.

Police Intelligence.

Police Intelligence.

Attempt to Take the Life of a Policeman—On Monday night, about 11 o'clock, while officer McLaughlin, of the Sixth ward police, was on duty in Orange street, he heard a disturbance in the next street, and hurried to the place from whence he heard the noise, with a view of rendering assistance and quelling the difficulty. On passing quickly along Orange street, the officer accidentally pushed against a man who was coming along in the opposite direction. The man begin to abuse the officer with very insulting language, and ultimately, with an accomplice rushed after the officer, came up with him, and one of them calling himself Edward Black, drew from his person a butcher's knife, which he thrust into the shoulder of the policeman, penetrating near the upper part of the cheet, thereby inflicting a very dangerous wound, which may yet prove fatal. The wounded man gave an extra slarm, and brought to his assistance officer McFarlan, who alded in pursuing the acaused and taking him into custody. The prisoner yesterday morning was brought before Justice Osborn, who committed him to the Tomba, there to await the result to the injured man. Mr. McLaughlin was conveyed to the City Hospital, for medical attendance.

The Vitriol Case —A partial hearing was gone into yesterday respecting the charge of conspiracy, pending against Samuel Apolant and Gustave Tuckolsky, on the complaint of Gotleb Welff, the facts of prished were published some short time since, whereby the defendants were accused of conspiring together and endeavoring to induce a man to throw vitriol on Mr. Wolff. Nothing new appeared on the cross examination, from the facts already given. The matter is still pending.

MEDICAL.

THE GREAT DISCOVERY FOR THE PREVENtions and relieving sea sickness has astonished all who have made a trial. It is almost instantaneous in its action in correcting the stomach and strengthening the entire system. It is delibratel, and is too be used internally and externally. Every effort heretofore made to relieve the awful distress occasioned by sea sickness having totally failed to give the slightest relief, the inventor's name will be borne in grateful remembrance, and carried over the broad Atlantic by hundreds of thousands, who will most cheerfully proclaim the glad tidings over the face of creation, which will induce thousands to travel who have remained as home for fear of the awful consequences of that which generally follows a voyage to sea.
This simple, bracing and agreeable remedy is used with never failing success. All thas is required is a trial to ondear it to every traveller. It never init a slot to check every apocies of pasemodic Troubles, Chelera, Diarrhosa, Billious Colic. Nevous and Sick Headache, No. 51a
